MAY WANT TO PLEAD GUILTY

Assailant Of Sheba Hopes For Lenient Sentence

Mori, the Japanese high wage delegate, who attempted to assassinate Sheba, is said to have decided that there would be little benefit to be gained by going before a jury on the crime that nearly cost Editor Sheba his life. It is understood that Attorney Lightfoot of the Higher Wage Association also feels that the best thing that Mori can do is to enter a plea of guilty and hope for a slight mitigation of the extreme penalty of ten years because of saving the Territory the cost of a trial of which the outcome could never be in doubt. It is stated that Lightfoot does not wish to see Mori go before Judge De Bolt but is desirous that the would-be assassin be brought before Circuit Judge Whitney for sentence. The case is now on the calendar for September 7th and the prosecution will not lose any time in hurrying the case to a conclusion.

N.G.H. RIFLE MATCH DETAILS OF SHOOT

Sergeant Blanchard Makes Top — Rain Squalls Interfere a Lot With Shooting.

Yesterday afternoon at the Fort Shafter rifle range the much talked of match between the Signal Corps of the Washington N. G. was fired off. The result, which has been cable to Washington, was not quite as good as was expected. The rain squalls interfered with the shooting and under the circumstances the total of 652 out of a possible 1000 must be considered satisfactory.

The Washington team also fired off their side of the match yesterday and the result should come through some time today by cable.

For Hawaii, Sergeant E. B. Blanchard made a total of 118 at the three different distances—200, 600 and 1000 yards. Captain Cummins was very close to the top scorer, as he made 117. Next in order were Captain M. M. Johnson, 114; Corporal M. V. Fernandez, 102; sergeant H. H. Williams, 1000 and B. M. Sumner 101.

The total of 652 is more than the Hawaiian rifle team made at Camp Perry last year. Sergeant Blanchard, who made 38 at the 1000 yards range yesterday did remarkable work. He also made 41 at the 600 yards distance and that, too, is really good shooting.

Captain O. J. Whitehead was captain of the team, and Lieut. Col. John W. Short, scorer. Captain Winant acted as representative of the Washington team. The official scores at the different ranges are as follows:—The 200 range is given first, 600 second and 1000 last: Captain M. M. Johnson, 42, 39 and 33; Sergeant E. B. Blanchard, 39, 41 and 38; Lieutenant B. M. Sumner, 40, 38 and 23; Corporal M. V. Fernandez, 37, 38 and 27; Capt. T. P. Cummins, 38, 43 and 36; Sergt.

and made a total of 118 at the three different distances—200, 600 and 1000 yards. Captain Cummins was very close to the top scorer, as he made 117. Next in order were Captain M. M. Johnson, 114; Corporal M. V. Fernandez, 102; sergeant H. H. Williams, 1000 and B. M. Sumner 101.
